PHTH 526
LIBRARY WORKSHOPS
2020
Charlotte Beck, Librarian
Today’s Objectives

- Overview of library workshops
- “Finding the Evidence” in context
- Discover what you already know
- Reminder to use the resources at: guides.library.ubc.ca/physicaltherapy
Library Workshop Schedule: Jan – Mar 2018

1. Jan 6 – Jan 27 – Do EIHC Steps 1 & 2
2. Jan 20 – KOERNER Library 217 90 min. (2 sections)
3. Feb 24 – Woodward Library 90 min. (3 sections)
4. Mar 23 – Woodward Library Tutorials (3 sections)
5. Mar 27 – Woodward Library Search exam
PHTH 526 COURSE OBJECTIVES

- Develop a basic literature search strategy to answer a specific question
- Perform and document a basic literature search
The role of Database Searching Skills in your Research Projects

IDEAS

• WHAT IS KNOWN
• SIMILAR
• RATIONALE

BACKGROUND

• METHODS
• SURVEY DESIGN
• ADAPTABLE

WRITING

• LATEST INFO
• IN TEXT CITATIONS
• BIBLIOGRAPHY
Clinical decision making,
Patient information

Staying refreshed, adopting new interventions, designing programmes

Managing time; being more efficient

Getting better grades
How to find information

- Summon
- UBC Full text
- Google Scholar
- Google
RESULTS

Quick Brilliant Lots
Information Class
October 25

- Evaluating credible sources
- Physical Therapy websites
- Textbooks
- Point of Care Tools
- Pubmed
Using PICO to find information

EIHC online Modules
Sources of Information

Different sources of information have different uses at different times.
LEVELS OF EVIDENCE - 6S MODEL

Licensed topical databases

- PUBMED/
- MEDLINE
- EMBASE
- CINAHL
- Other

Woodward Feb 24, Mar 23, 27
Help Design the Workshops

Please tell me what you already know or want to learn at this link:

[PHTH 526 Library Workshop Survey]
Jan 20, 2020 @ 217 Koerner Library
Thank you